

KIRAN GANDHI

Kiran Gandhi is a human resource consultant to several small, medium and large companies in India. He previously worked as Head, Human Resources at three global Indian companies and as the training head of Tata Motors, Jamshedpur. He offers corporate training in leadership and management and has served as an executive coach at leading companies. He has taught as visiting faculty at prestigious management schools such as the Indian Business School, the Indian Institute of Management and the Tata Management Training Centre, and is a regular facilitator at Asia Plateau, the India Center for Initiatives of Change (IofC). He earned a bachelor's degree in Technology from the Indian Institute of Technology, Bombay, and a post-graduate diploma in Business Management from Xavier Labor Relations Institute, Jamshedpur. Kiran developed a passion for building human relations and teams after he met the ideas of IofC as a student.

Kiran has designed and delivered several training programmes on ethical leadership for business managers as well as civil servants. He recently designed and co-directed a UNDP/DoPT sponsored Training of Trainers programme for the development of a National Pool of Ethics Trainers. He is a regular Course Director of many of the programmes at Asia Plateau, Panchgani, including the ones on Ethics for Public Governance for All India Service officers.
