

Mrs. Ritu Mathur,
Programme Analyst, UNDP

Mrs. Ritu Mathur, Programme Analyst, UNDP has an experience of more than a decade of working closely with training institutions in the country. During this period, she has worked extensively on capacity building with ATIs on human development and with State Institutes for Rural Development on training of elected representatives of Panchayati Raj. She has collaborated with the Ministry of Women and Child Development on gender budgeting training and with the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation on designing training programmes for statisticians on district level data.