

CAREER PROFILE

Shri. D. Ponnusamy, is a BE (Production Engineering) from NIT, Tiruchirappalli, with MBA and PG. Dip. in Industrial Engineering. Is a senior Faculty Member and Programme Director of Anna Institute of Management for the past 25 years. Prior to joining Anna Institute of Management has worked in executive positions at Private and Central Government Institutions for nine years. Is a Government of India certified Master Trainer in Direct Trainer Skills and Recognised Trainer in Design of Training and Evaluation of Training. Has imparted training to 27967 participants by conducting 1088 training programmes. Based on invitations, presented papers at various international seminars. Written a series of articles on “Regaining the Golden Era” in Tamil Management magazine. Being the Secretary of a charitable trust involved in upliftment of differently-abled people had carried out many campaigns and notable among them is enabling sizeable number of people with varied disabilities to clear State Service Commission Examinations by conducting free coaching classes. Awarded for “Best Practices in Development of Training Content and Pedagogy” by DOPT, GOI for the year 2015.